

Harlem Afternoon Jazz Series

Every Tuesday afternoon starting November 4, 2014, Harlem will play host to some of today's most talented jazz musicians while paying tribute to history's greatest jazz music. And YOU'RE invited!

Concertgoers will spend each Tuesday afternoon surrounded by the cool vibrations of jazz as they are soothed and invigorated by seemingly magical strings and horns. This is an event for all of the senses, and it is meant to be both mentally and spiritually uplifting.

The series is artistically directed and hosted by Craig Harris, a trombonist, composer and longtime Harlem resident. Harris has been a major figure in the jazz scene for over thirty years. He has performed throughout the USA and abroad with some of the genre's most important figures.

WHERE: The series will take place at Rendall Memorial Presbyterian Church, 59 West 137th Street New York, NY 10037

WHEN: House doors open at 11:30 a.m. every Tuesday

HOW MUCH: $15

We hope to see you all there!
